

Projects Management

1. is defined as all the activities and tasks undertaken for achieving goals by continuous activities like; planning, organizing, leading and controlling
a) Manager b) Management c) Division of Work 2. Management is a process of....
a) planning & motivation b) decision making c) organizing & leading d) All 3. Management is theof tasks to achieve a goal
a) coordination b) administration c) Both a , b d) None of the above 4. Management can't refer to the seniority structure of staff members within an organization.
a) true b) false
5. Good management is the backbone of successful organizations.
a) true b) false
6.means getting things done to achieve life's objectives and managing an organization means getting things done with and through other people to achieve its objectives.
a) planning b) Organizing c) Managing life
7. Working with human, financial and physical resources to achieve organizational objectives by performing the planning, organizing, leading and controlling functions
a) decision making b) Management c) Division of Work

8. Management is a set of activities directed at the efficient and effective utilization of resources in the pursuit of one or more goals

a)true

b>false

9. Management is a problem-solving process of effectively achieving organizational objectives through the efficient use of scarce resources in a changing environment

a)true

b>false

10. is an art of knowing what to do when to do and see that it is done in the best and cheapest way a)decision making

b) Management

c) Division of Work

11. is an integral part of management and plays a vital role in managerial operations, while management is an integral component ofas well as social processes.

a)Leadership , technical

b) humanity, technical c)None of the above

12. The study of management in a systematic and scientific way as a distinct body of knowledge is an old study

a>true

b>false

13. A manager must help develop employees and adjust their strategy to give their team clarity and directions on what they're working on.

a>true

b>false

14. A manager is a role represented within a hierarchy of an organization, starting from the chief executive officer (CEO) and trickling down to the vice president, director and then finally department managers

a)true

b>false

15.The is the communication line between an executive team and employees working under them who work together to execute projects and complete their goals

a) Manager

b) Management

c) Division of Work

16. A company's hierarchal structure can vary depending on of an organization a)the size

b)management style

c) Both a , b

d) None of the above

17.To be an effective manager, you'll need to develop a set of skills, including....

a) planning

b) communication

c) organization & leadership

d) ALL

18.Which of the following is one of the basic operations of a manager?

a) Setting objectives

b) Organizing

c) Motivating the time

d)All

19.Developing people &Devising systems of measurement are not from the basic operations of a manager

a>true

b>false

20..... is the primary way a manager accomplishes and maintains success. They must also be able to convey them to their staff or employees in a compelling manner.

- a) Setting objectives b) Organizing c) Motivating the time

21. Managers evaluate the type of work, divide it into achievable tasks and effectively delegate it to staff, This is called....

- a) Setting objectives b) Organizing c) Motivating the time

22. It is the manager's responsibility to ensure that these individuals and entities work together in harmony, which includes motivating staff members and departments to stay on task.

- a)true b>false

23.Maximizing organizational arrangements can help businesses enhance the company's efficiency in the market,....

- a) reduce the costs of business b) improve productivity
c) Both a , b d) None of the above

24.....includes having the skills to handle different types of personalities in a team

- a) motivation b) Developing people c) Organizing 25.An effective manager must know how to form and lead successful teams and know how to galvanize team members around a cause.

- a>true b>false

26. Managers need to set targets or key performance indicators that the team aims for and then generate ways to measure whether their team is on track to meet those goals, This is called....

- a) Motivating the team
- b) Devising systems of measurement
- c) Organizing
- d) None of the above

27. Because it can be challenging to produce measurable ways of understanding performance, managers must often be creative and thoughtful.

- a) true
- b) false

28. Managers are responsible for coaching their team members by helping them recognize their strengths and weaknesses and improve their performance

- a) true
- b) false

29. Different managers have the same styles of leadership.

- a) true
- b) false

30. This principle of management is based on the theory that if workers are given a specialized task to do, they will become skillful and more efficient in it than if they had a broader range of tasks.

- a) Authority
- b) Division of Work
- c) Discipline
- d) Remuneration

31. This principle looks at the concept of managerial authority. It looks at how authority is necessary in order to ensure that managerial commands are carried out

a) Authority b) Division of Work c) Discipline d) Remuneration

32. This principle relates to the fact that discipline is needed within an organization for it to run effectively. Organizational rules, philosophies, and structures need to be met.

a) Authority b) Division of Work c) Discipline d) Remuneration

33. There should be a clear chain of command in place within an organization. An employee should know exactly whose instructions to follow.

a) Discipline b) Unity of command c) Unity of direction

34. Work should be organized in a way that means employees are working in harmony toward a shared objective or goal using a shared method or procedure.

a) Discipline b) Unity of command c) Unity of direction

35. The interests of the organization as a whole should take precedence over the interests of any individual employee or group of employees.

a) true b) false

36. In order to motivate and be fair to employees, they should be paid a reasonable rate for the work they carry out. An organization that underpays will struggle to attract quality workers who are motivated.

a) Remuneration b) Centralization c) Scalar chain d) Order.

37. This principle relates to whether decisions should be made centrally, as in from the top down, or in a more democratic way, from the bottom up.

a) Remuneration b) Centralization c) Scalar chain d) Order

38. This relates to the principle of a clear chain of communication existing between employees and superiors. The chain should be respected, unless speedy communication is vital, in which case the chain may be bypassed if all parties consent.

a) Remuneration b) Centralization c) Scalar chain d) Order

39. This relates to the proper use of resources and their effective deployment in a structured fashion.

a) Remuneration b) Centralization c) Scalar chain d) Order

40. Managers should behave ethically towards those they manage.

a) Centralization b) Scalar chain c) Order d) Equity

41. It is not desirable within an organization to have a low staff turnover rate

a) true b) false

42. There should be a method of filling any staff vacancies that arise

a) clear b) efficient c) Both a , b d) None of the above

43. Employees that have an input as to how to best do their job are likely to feel more motivated and respected. Many organizations place a great deal of emphasis on listening to the concerns of staff.

a) Scalar chain b) Order c) Initiative d) Equity

44. Keeping a high level of morale and team spirit is an essential part of having the most productive organization possible

a) true

b) false

45. Which of the following is one of the management Functions?

a) planning

b) controlling

c) Both a , b

d) None of the above

46. phase includes choosing desired goals and actions to determine what strategies to use, what actions to take, and decide what resources are needed to achieve these goals.

a) Planning

b) organizing

c) staffing

d) leading

47. An effective planning program incorporates the effect of both external as well as internal factors

a) true

b) false

48. The are shortages of resources; both capital and material, general economic trend as far as interest rates and inflation are concerned, dynamic technological advancements

a) internal factors

b) external factors

c) Both a , b

d) None of the above

49. The that affect planning are limited growth opportunities due to saturation requiring diversification, changing patterns of the workforce, more complex organizational structures, decentralization

a) internal factors

b) external factors

c) Both a , b

d) None of the above

50. This process of establishing worker relationships allows workers to work together to achieve their organizational goals

- a) Planning b) organizing c) staffing d) leading 51.....phase includes identifying the tasks that must be performed and grouping them and Assigning these tasks to the personnel.

- a) Planning b) organizing c) staffing d) leading

52.The function of organizing is concerned with

- a) Identifying the tasks b) Delegating authority to employees
c) Assigning tasks to personnel d) All of the above

53.This function involves articulating a vision, energizing employees, inspiring and motivating people using vision, influence, persuasion, and effective communication skills

- a) Planning b) organizing c) staffing d) leading

54. The directing function is concerned with ,communication, and supervision so that the employees perform their activities in the most efficient manner possible, in order to achieve the desired goals

- a) leadership b) motivation c) a, b d) None of the above 55.The leadership element involves issuing instructions and guiding the subordinates about...

- a) procedures b) methods c) Both a , b d) None of the above

56..... is the function of hiring and retaining a suitable work-force for the enterprise both at managerial as well as non-managerial levels

- a) Planning b) organizing c) staffing d) leading

57. is the measurement & correction of performance activities of subordinates in order to make sure that the enterprise objectives and plans desired to obtain them as being accomplished.

- a) Planning b) staffing c) Controlling d) leading 58.The controlling function involves

- a) Establishment of standard performance b) Taking corrective
c) Measurement of actual performance d) All of the above

59. organizations contain front-line, middle, and top managers?

- a>true b>false

60. the more you move toward the bottom of the pyramid, the fewer managers you have?

- a>true b>false

61.....is the set of specific tasks that a manager is expected to perform because of the position he or she holds in an organization.

- a) The humanity b) A managerial role c) Both a , b d) None of the above 62.Henry Mintzberg's model points out that there are main types of roles all managers play; they are

- a) decisional & interpersonal b) interpersonal & informational
c) Both a, b d) None of the above

63. In, managers can perform in an entrepreneurial manner, as a disturbance handler, resource allocator or negotiator.

- a) the decisional role b) an interpersonal role c) the informational role

64. In, managers may be figureheads, leaders, and liaisons.

- a) the decisional role b) an interpersonal role c) the informational role

65. In, they monitor, are disseminators or spokespersons, and they share information.

- a) the decisional role b) an interpersonal role c) the informational role

66. An essential component of operationalizing the organization's strategic plan is allocating resources

- a) true b) false

67. The strategic plan and its specific objectives determine what is important and what may not be as important

- a) true b) false

68. Emotional Intelligence (EQ) in Maximizing Human Potential has 3 dimensions

- a) true b) false

69. Which of the following is one of the dimensions of emotional intelligence 'EQ' in maximizing human potential?

- a) high self-awareness b) Social awareness c) Self-management d) All

70. EQ is a very important component for excelling as a supervisor

- a) true b) false

71. The most managers are specialists rather than generalists

- a) true b) false

72. You can select elements of different styles of management to create the best archetype for you and your company?

- a) true b) false

73. Influential managers are aware of the work that their team members are doing on basis and are involved in their work lives

- a) a monthly b) a day-to-day c) an annual d) None of the above

74. A democratic manager invites the team to be directly involved in decision-making

- a) true b) false

75.of communication between democratic managers and employees allow these types of managers to understand the skills and advantages that each employee brings to the table.

- a) Open lines b) Open participation c) None of the above 76.and exchange of ideas among different levels of employees allow everyone to contribute to the outcome of a decision or a project.

- a) Open lines b)Open participation c) None of the above

77.The laissez-faire manager functions almost more like a mentor than a manager.

- a>true b>false

78.Management is a social process that involves only control and use of financial resources alone

- a) true b) false

79.Human resources are also relevant for an organization to achieve its targeted goals.

- a>true b>false

80. Management also involves the integrating process whereby human resources work together in harmony to achieve the firm's objective

- a>true b>false

81.management is a process that will never end as long as the organization remains

- a>true b>false

Best Wishes